

The Awakening

The Awakening represents humanity's struggle in birthing new ideas, new generations and the struggle with good and evil (black/brown and white striped sea snakes ascending) in an ever-changing word.

Purple mountains and a golden sky hold the focal point of a circle within a square, representing God. The circle has no beginning and no end, while the square "boxes in" the sovereign omnipotence of God as humanity tries to define its Creator.

The fish is a Christian symbol while water symbolizes power, life and mystery. It is also referred to as being the tears or sorrow of God. The shell represents Mother Mary who holds the Pearl of Great Price.

The sea creatures are bathed in a sea of 23k gold leaf (original only) it is a shimmering and timeless piece.
