

Inner Experiences: The Sculpture and Process of William Nettelhorst

March 26 - June 4, 2021

ONLINE Exhibit - www.alfonsgallery.org

Through still images and video, this exhibit provides a behind-the-scenes look into Nettelhorst's sculpting process in pink alabaster.

Personal insight is provided through the artist's initial sketchbook drawings along with his own in-process, visual documentation.

This introspective series began with Nettelhorst's question, "Can I carve what I feel?"

"Words came to me, and I scratched a one-line drawing for each word as I experienced the word in me." W. Nettelhorst

Anger Pain
My Journey
Healing Life

Contact: vchristell@ssf.org

1501 S. Layton Blvd. (27th & Greenfield) Milw., WI - Remains CLOSED due to Pandemic